Desktop TV now available at Marshall Center

A pilot version of Desktop TV is now available at the Marshall Center. Depending on computer network connections, either two channels -- NASA TV and Marshall TV -- or four channels -- NASA TV, Marshall TV, CNN and C-Span -- as well as archived video, can be viewed on computers at Marshall. Since this is a pilot version, service may be intermittent. Any problems related to the service should be reported to Stacey.Haddock@msfc.nasa.gov. Do not call the Help Desk for assistance. To tune in to the service, go to <http://desktoptv.msfc.nasa.gov/>.
